

What are the game controls used in Pyramids of Anubis?

Control	Function
Sound 	This allows you to increase or decrease the volume of sounds in the game.
Mute 	This button allows you to mute or unmute the game sounds.
Odds Display 	This allows you to select the format you wish to see the game odds displayed in. AS = Asian Decimals, UK = British Fractions, EU = European Decimals, and US = American Odds. Asian Decimals is your winnings as a decimal, British Fractions is your payout as a fraction, European Decimals is your payout as a decimal, and American Odds show how much money will be won on a $100 wager.

Control	Function
Balance 	Your balance is displayed near the top right of the game screen. The button immediately right of the amount hides / unhides the balance amount. When there are no active bets running, the button furthest right is enabled to allow balance refresh, to take into account bets placed on other website channels, voids and customer transactions such as deposits and withdrawals.
Full Screen Mode 	This button allows you to switch between the default game screen size and full screen mode.
Bet ID	The current Bet ID is shown below at the bottom of the screen once a bet has been placed. When viewing your bet history, your games are displayed under their associated Slip ID. This is the Bet ID rounded down to the nearest 100. For example, if your Bet ID was 1234567891101, the relevant Slip ID would be 1234567891100.
Speed	This allows you to control the speed of the game. Click and drag the control to the left to slow or to the right to speed up.

Stop / Stop Auto Play	When Auto Play is in use, a 'Stop' or 'Stop Auto Play' button is displayed. If you click on this button or press the Space Bar whilst Auto Play is running, the Auto Play function stops and Auto Play is reset to 1. This allows you to stop Auto Play regardless of how many Auto Play gambles you initially selected or how many remain. Only the wager for each play that has been started or completed will be deducted from your balance.
Continue	This button allows you to proceed with game play.
